DESCRIPTION

The Atelier Opal Mirror Wall Light brings a sense of warmth and quiet refinement to bathrooms and dressing spaces. Its slender opal glass diffuser is held within an elegantly curved iron frame, combining functional simplicity with subtle vintage detailing. When illuminated, the glass softens the light into a smooth, comfortable glow that gently brightens both the mirror and its surroundings.

With its balanced horizontal silhouette, the fixture sits naturally above a vanity, bathroom mirror, dressing table, or hallway mirror. Polished metal accents and delicately shaped finials lend it a timeless character, while the clean linear form keeps the overall appearance light and understated.

Designed to complement rather than dominate a room, Atelier adds a thoughtful finishing touch to everyday interiors. Practical, graceful, and easy to live with, it creates the feeling of a space that has been carefully considered without appearing overly styled.
