

Petaline Table Lamp

AESTHOME

SPECIFICATION SHEET

DESCRIPTION

The Petaline Table Lamp takes its name from the softly domed shade and delicate scalloped edges, reminiscent of flower petals gently unfolding in the morning light. Fine fluted details enhance its graceful silhouette, while the translucent acrylic diffuses illumination into a warm, tranquil glow. Its quietly nostalgic character brings a sense of intimacy and calm to bedside tables, reading corners, and living spaces.

A celadon ceramic body finished with a layered glaze reveals subtle crackle patterns and natural variations, giving each piece its own distinctive character. Antique brass-toned alloy details frame the pale green ceramic with vintage warmth, completing a design that feels refined, poetic, and timeless.
