DESCRIPTION

The Ripple Brim Glass Wall Sconce pairs vintage character with a light, refined silhouette. Its gently flared glass shade is traced with fine radial ridges, catching and refracting the light with a delicate ripple-like shimmer.

Suspended from a curved iron arm with a decorative chain detail, the transparent shade reveals the bulb beneath while a polished silver finish adds a crisp, elegant touch. When illuminated, it casts a warm, softly textured glow across the wall.

Ideal beside beds, above consoles, or along hallways, Ripple Brim brings understated nostalgia and luminous charm to both classic and contemporary interiors.
