DESCRIPTION

Shaped like a lotus bud just beginning to open, the Lotus Bud Ceramic Pendant Light brings a quiet, poetic presence to the room. Its gently fluted ceramic shade finishes in a softly scalloped edge, while warm brass details lend a subtle vintage character. When illuminated, light gathers beneath the petal-like form, creating an intimate and inviting glow.

Petite yet distinctive, it is beautifully suited above a bedside table, kitchen counter, reading nook, or any corner in need of a delicate focal point. Each richly glazed finish—from soft celadon and blush pink to deep cobalt and jade green—gives the pendant its own unique mood.
